

MORE THAN ONCE

---

1)

More than once my outer self was asking for few cups of a sherry wine can make one to forget somebody said well, it's not true.

More than once my inner self was begging for someone I will marry no reason to be cheerful but there's always hope once I get the clue
And than no more chance to see me blue...

3)

More than once my outer self was pleasing for Welfare and good money
Now wonder in old memories to open up
Who I was born.

4)

More than once my inner self was out of clouds
Windless and so sunny
(and) all at once the change has come to remind me
What does mean a storm
Oh I miss that summer more and more...

PreCH)

Searching for a lifelong intent
Is that love or it's commitment
See that a flower blooms more than once...mmm

CH)

More than once you could see me struggle
More than once you could see me cry
More than once you could see me struggle
More than once as you know you could see me grow..

2x

Many times in my life you will see me struggle
(but) anymore in my life you will see me cry

'Cause I'm a freak I'm a jerk barely trapped or troubled Once you've got reason why you'll learn how to fly
Look, life is gift so go and live, give your love to others
Once you've got chance to grow, do not let it go
Let it go-let it go...
